Ireland-Palestine Scholarship Programme (IPSP)

The Ireland-Palestine Scholarship Programme is now accepting applications for the academic year 2023/2024, offering full scholarships for Palestinian students to study in Ireland for one year at Master's level. The Programme provides opportunities for candidates to choose from a wide variety of courses at 19 different higher education institutions in Ireland.

- Scholarship includes tuition fees, flights, accommodation and living expenses
- Study in one of the best education systems in the world for higher education achievements
- Join the 35,000 international students from 161 countries enjoying Ireland's vibrant culture
- Live in an English-speaking country
- Experience living in one of the friendliest and safest countries in the world

To be eligible for the IPSP, applicants must:

- be a Palestinian currently resident in the occupied Palestinian territory, holding a Palestinian or Jerusalem ID;
- have identified and selected three relevant courses from the Directory of Eligible Postgraduate Courses;
- hold a bachelor's degree from an accredited institution with a minimum grade point average of 75% or 2.67 (or equivalent standard);
- have achieved the necessary academic standard to be accepted onto their chosen Master's degree course in a higher education institution in Ireland (refer to the rough table of equivalency in the Selection of Course Choices section of the Guidance Note & Application Form);
- be applying to commence a new qualification and not be seeking funding for a course they have already commenced, or which will begin before scholarship awards have been notified;
- not already hold a qualification at Master's degree level or higher;
- be able to take up the scholarship in the academic year 2023/2024;
- submit with their application a valid English-language proficiency score report (dated September 2021 or later) with a minimum score of 6.5 on IELTS, or 550 on Institutional Testing Program (ITP), or 80 on Internet-based TOEFL (iBT), or 110 on Duolingo.
- Prior professional working experience is not required.
- Female applicants are strongly encouraged to apply.
